CLERKSHIP APPLICATIONS

Judge Ho currently employs three clerks for a one-year period, commencing in October. Positions for the term beginning in October 2027 are now posted on OSCAR. Judge Ho prefers applicants who have one or more years of legal work experience at the time that the clerkship begins. Current law students may apply, but 2Ls must do so in accordance with the timelines set forth in the Pilot Law Clerk Hiring Plan. All applicants must submit their materials through OSCAR and should not send applications by email or regular mail. Judge Ho encourages applicants to include in their cover letter any relevant information that does not appear elsewhere in the application.

LAW STUDENT INTERNSHIPS

Judge Ho hires interns throughout the year. Interns during the fall or spring semester work approximately fifteen to twenty hours per week and interns over the summer work full time. Judge Ho is currently accepting applications for interns for Fall 2026, as detailed below.

Interns assist in the wide range of cases on Judge Ho's docket in various ways, including preparing his opinions and orders for publication, performing legal research, and aiding in trials. Interns are encouraged to attend various hearings and trials taking place in the Southern District of New York and the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. They will also have the opportunity to produce a writing sample related to their work in Chambers.

While some remote work may be possible, interns should expect to work in person in chambers. The internship position is unpaid, but Judge Ho will work with interns to ensure they receive any funding or academic credit available through their schools. Judge Ho also participates in the Judicial Intern Opportunity Program offered through the American Bar Association.

Applicants should have excellent analytic and writing abilities, strong attention to detail, and the ability to juggle competing deadlines. Applicants of all backgrounds and experiences are encouraged to apply.

To apply for the Fall 2026 internship, applicants should send a cover letter, resume, legal writing sample, and law school transcript in a single PDF to HoNYSDChambers@nysd.uscourts.gov, under the following email subject line: "Fall 2026 Application: [Last Name], [First Name]."
